

CIMA Vivaio di giovani talenti!

Concerto di Musica da Camera

con la partecipazione di cinque giovani talenti internazionali

17 aprile - Teatro Verdi - Firenze

On the 17th of April the Teatro Verdi in Florence will play host to a stunning classical music concert sponsored by CIMA, the association which organizes an annual musical festival on the Monte Argentario peninsula .

Before the twelfth edition of the " CIMA Festival" scheduled for next summer takes place, CIMA wants to provide an opportunity for youngsters to experience classical music. The purpose of CIMA is to grant scholarships to promising young artists and musicians, from around the world, thereby allowing their continued specialized training. Ever since 2002, CIMA has awarded more than € 150,000 in scholarships to the most promising young artists.

We invite you to enjoy a very special evening in the company of CIMA' s Presidents: Maestro Jorge Chaminé and H.R.H. Princess Christina of the Netherlands at the Teatro Verdi. Once again, the entire proceeds from this event are ear-marked for the scholarship funds in the form of educational grants dedicated to young artists and musicians from all over the world.

On the night five young musicians, who have studied on CIMA scholarships, and have since gained international fame, will perform together under the artistic direction of Maestro Jorge Chaminé. They are Etsuko Hirose (piano), Gabriel Le Magadure (violin), Gabriele Carcano (piano), Eric -Maria Couturier (cello) and Shani Diluka (piano).

Music will include works by Mozart, Liszt, Debussy, Chopin, Rachmaninov, Dvorak and Piazzolla.

Prior to the beginning of the concert, an Aperitivo made up of typical Tuscan and Dutch foods will be served. Reservations are advisable and can be made by emailing: events@concertiinmonteargentario.it
